Mr. R. D. Banks,
5312 Blackstone Avenue,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Sir:-

I have just received your letter, and am a little puzzled as to whether you desire the "Numismatist" which you ask about, or the "American Journal of Numismatics".

The Numismatist is a magazine published by the American Numismatic Association of which Mr. Frank G. Duffield is the editor. Should you care to subscribe for this magazine, write to Mr. Duffield at 1811 Mosher Street, Baltimore, Maryland. The Numismatist is published monthly and the price is $1.50.

As regards the American Journal of Numismatics, this was issued by us up to 1920, when it was temporarily suspended, Volume 53 being the last published.

In going over our correspondence with you, I notice that you have subscribed for our Journal since 1912, and I am anxious to know if you would consider an invitation to become a member of this Society. Associate Membership dues are but five dollars a year, and this entitles the member to the copies of our publication, now known as "Numismatic Notes and Monographs". I am enclosing a list of those published last year which will give you an idea of the subjects treated. If you are interested, we will be pleased to have you sign and return the enclosed card and your application can be acted upon at our next Council meeting.

Trusting to have a favorable reply from you, I am,

Yours very truly,

Curator.
